DAYTON, Ohio, September 20, 1966 --- The Union Activities Organization of the University of Dayton is coordinating a revival of the Campus Carnival, to be held Friday, September 23, from 7 P.M. - 12:30 A.M. Chairman Tony De Rosa and his committee have been working on this venture over the summer months, and now estimate the number of organization-sponsored booths at 27.

Various campus clubs are in charge of running a booth for the evening, using the profits to subsidize activities that will arise during the year.

Five rides will be set up in the plaza between the Kennedy Union and Miriam Hall, while the booths will line the road from in front of the Union through campus.

Featured during the evening will be the Pittsburgh Club's gorilla; a dunking booth at which the male students can try their luck at dunking co-eds; a tension-breaking car-wrecking booth; and a raffle conducted by the Blackfriars Guild on a 6 ft. tall stuffed polar bear.
